

Egg Donation for Research

We urgently need volunteers.

Donors will receive £500 compensation for a completed donation cycle.

Our team at Newcastle University is pioneering the development of new techniques to prevent transmission of serious diseases caused by mutations in mitochondrial DNA.

We are looking for fit, healthy women between the ages of 21-35 years old who are willing to donate their eggs.

For more information please register your interest at:

www.ncl.ac.uk/eggdonate

